English Introduction

Duat Mutlaqeen have made it a custom to pray the “Khayr ul-anaam” marsiya at the start of each waaz mubarak during the days of Ashara Mubarak. This marsiya was written by a Shia poet.

It begins with the madeh of Panjetan, Mohammad Rasulullah (SA), Maulana Ali (AS), Maulatuna Fatema (AS), Maulana Hasan (AS), and Maulana Husain (AS), who, along with their Progeny, the Aimmat Tahereen, are the ‘khayr ul-anaam’, the best of all people. The first few verses praise their illustrious station and laud their guidance of the world to salvation. The poet then visualizes himself in Karbala. Recalling the calamities that befell Aqa Husain AS and his Ahle-bait and Ashaab, his greif is renewed and he weeps and laments. He ends with salawaat on our Nabi Mohammed SA and his Progeny.
